

Affidavit,
First Notice of Existence,
Bilateral Social Compact Agreement
by and between the People of Buncombe County in North-Carolina, in The United States of America

Preamble

We the People, in our natural identity without restriction by legislation or person, agree that the great and essential principles of rightful liberty and freedom are recognized and established within this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement, the essential rights and rightful liberty for the People within the metes and bounds boundaries of Buncombe County, one of the 100 counties in North-Carolina, a State of The Union of The United States of America;

We the People of Buncombe County do not recognize “the United States Federal Government” or any Private Service Corporation claiming Government authority in Buncombe County as a regulatory commission to determine what is authorized and not authorized in this settlement on the land known as Buncombe County;

On this twentieth day of March 2024, We the People in our unalienable image, men and women assembled in Buncombe County hereby deny any trespass upon our unalienable image and or rights thereof; We the People have hereby declared our independence and stand on our rights to protect life, rightful liberty, private property, and the pursuit of happiness; Our God given natural rights are endowed upon us, and no inhabitant, man or woman, and or People may remove or trespass upon these rights; Our natural rights are superior to any man-made orders, statutes, or codes; We the People agree The Law of The Land is The Articles of Confederation of 1781-present, The Declaration of Independence of The United States of America 1776, the North-Carolina Constitution 1776, and this Bilateral Social Compact recorded at the County Convention with the North-Carolina Bilateral Social Compact on March 20th, 2024;

Article 1

We the People agree that all People of Buncombe County, a county in North-Carolina, a State of The Union of the united States of America, when forming a Bilateral Social Compact Agreement are on an equal footing; and have certain inherent and infeasible immunities from other Independent States of The Union, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and rightful liberty; of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property and reputation; and of pursuing their own happiness; and

Article 2

We the People agree that all political power is inherent within the People of Buncombe County, and all republics are founded on the authority of the People, and established for the benefit and general welfare of the People that formed said republic; and, therefore, the People have, at all times, an unalienable and infeasible right to alter or abolish Government, in such manner as may be deemed necessary; and

Article 3

We the People agree that all People have a natural and unalienable right to worship according to their own conscience; and that no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious establishment, or mode of worship within Buncombe County, a county in North-Carolina, a State of The Union of The United States of America; Therefore, the People of Buncombe County are free to choose to practice religion by their own way, in their own truth, and in their own lives; and

Article 4

We the People agree that all elections shall be free and equal within each body politic formed as derived from this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement, and that no property qualification is required for eligibility to office or for the right of suffrage within Buncombe County, a county in North-Carolina, a State of The Union of The United States of America; and

Article 5

We the People agree that as signatories of this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement all may freely speak, may write, and may publish sentiments on all subjects, each being responsible for their abuse of that liberty; and no law shall ever be passed to curtail, abridge, or restrain the liberty of speech or of the press; and

Article 6

We the People agree that the signatories of this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement shall always be with the right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble together to consult, and create limits and authority to meet the requirements of consultation and collaboration for legislation in our assemblies for the general welfare of the People of Buncombe County; and

Article 7

We the People agree that the right of trial by jury of their peers is guaranteed in the same jurisdiction and venue, and shall forever remain inviolate regardless of separate political bodies, the definition of this right shall never be redefined outside the authority of this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement; and

Article 8

We the People agree whoever brings evidence of a wrong can ask to initiate a lawful Grand Jury to evaluate the evidence; The presentment has to be in the form of an Affidavit; and

Article 9

We the People agree that all the inhabitants and People shall be secure in their bodies, persons, dwellings, papers, possessions, and property from unreasonable searches and seizures; and that a wet ink signed warrant by a lawful judge is required upon demand to search any place, or to seize anything and shall not be issued without inscribing the place to be searched, and the man or woman, property, and or thing to be seized; and no warrant shall ever be served without due process, physical evidence corroborating a sworn affidavit of harm caused, and supported by oath or affirmation filed in the proper venue by the accuser; and

Article 10

We the People agree that no inhabitant, man or woman, or any of the People regardless of status shall be taken, imprisoned, or deprived of freehold, rightful liberties, outlawed, exiled, or in any manner destroyed or deprived of life, liberty, or property, but by the law written within Buncombe County as derived from this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement; and

Article 11

We the People agree that Government shall make remedy by due process of law; and right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial, or delay; and

Article 12

We the People agree that in all criminal prosecutions the accused have a right to:

1. Be heard with or without assistance of counsel; no forced or coerced associations will be allowed, nor will foreign association be required;
2. Demand the nature and cause of the accusation;
3. Confront the witnesses that have written an Affidavit of testimony of harm;
4. Due process of law for obtaining witnesses in favor of the accused;
5. Not give evidence against themselves;
6. A speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of peers in accordance with this Bilateral Social Compact

And all prosecutions by Grand Jury indictment or presentment are formed by or within the authority of this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement; and

Article 13

We the People agree that all accused must be bail-able and the privilege of habeas corpus will not be suspended, unless when, in case of rebellion or invasion preventing lawful due process, and where the proof is evident, the public safety may require the temporary suspension of habeas corpus, decided by the authority as derived from this Bilateral Social Compact Agreement; and

Article 14

We the People agree that excessive bail will in no case be imposed, nor excessive fines be imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishments be inflicted; nor shall the redemption of the bond be allowed unless actual damage or injury has been proven in fact; and

Article 15

We the People agree that no inhabitant, man or woman, or any of the People will, for the same offense, be twice put in jeopardy of dissolution or accusation; and

Article 16

We the People agree that in all indictments, the truth shall be given in evidence; and that no exculpatory evidence or witness will be denied in court; and if it appears to the Grand Jury that the evidence is true, and published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the truth will be a justification; and the Grand Jury will be the judges of the law and facts without coercion or instruction; and

Article 17
